

When: Saturday July 25, 2009 at 4:00pm until ?

What: Toxic Bash VII (aka Toxic Bash LE v. 1.0, aka mini Toxic Bash, aka "Viva La Garage") featuring food, drink and live music in the evening at one of the homes normally hosting the annual Toxic Bash events.

Where: 22440 Lange St. in lovely St. Clair Shores, Mi. on the Lange/Revere canal

Why: An annual event extended from the Summerfests in Ann Arbor going on it's thirteenth year of production. This is the 7th year in this location.

What to Bring: Nothing except an appetite and thirst. This is an outdoor event so dress accordingly.

Featuring:

- ?? Solo acoustic set from Scott Thompson
- ?? The duet acoustic antics of the Winston Churchill Trio
- ?? The Acoustic Terminator Ernie Douglas
- ?? The fresh cover jams of Semi-Productive

Directions and Other Tidbits:

From I-94 exit 10 mile and head east. At Jefferson Ave. turn right (south) and drive past Lange and Revere streets to the entrance of Blossom Heath and Walby Park. Park in the lot behind Walby Park (towards the Lake). Please do not park on Lange or Revere Streets or the commercial establishments (Mike's Marine, Advanced Aquatics, or West Marine), or you run the risk of being ticketed and/or towed. Alcoholic beverages will not be made available to anyone under 21 years of age (we will check Ids).

Bands will begin playing promptly at 5pm and will continue until 10pm. All live music will be done by 10pm, however you are invited to stay and enjoy food/beverage/company.